A Life Well-Lived

Lord, my life lived for self counts for nothing.

My life lived for others may afford a modest amount of honor — should some remember me when I am gone.

But my lived for Christ as a mirror reflecting His love to others and a compass whose needle points all to Jesus is a life well-lived.

“His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.’” (Matthew 25: 23 ESV)
