

Celebrating Abortion in America (again) – Truth AND Consequences

Like many, I was moved to disgust and great sadness when I watched as elected government officials celebrated passing another law adding one more state to the list that can end the lives of babies up to their birthday. This is a message that (1) points all to biblical truth about life in our Creator's words, His ultimate intolerance of such sin, (2) calls out the Christian church for its passivity, and (3) offers healing and hope to those considering abortion or suffering from its consequences.

The Wrong Hate – A Strong Word for Christians in America

Hate is perhaps the most polarizing word in our culture today, especially in the political arena. The Lord gave me this brief message to help Christians understand how to process it – personally and in a world in which we will be hated by some because they first hated Jesus.
